

Jan. 24 4 pm Wed. Morris UC 215	Information Literacy Authority is Constructed and Contextual.” This session asked what that means to you. What it means to your students? The library profession’s new methodology, the ACRL Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education, changes the way we practice information literacy instruction in all disciplines across campus. Participants learned about the framework and how it impacts instruction and improves student learning. This session was for everyone, but was especially for Senior Seminar instructors and composition faculty. Led by Marla Bebe.	Creating a Student Centered Classroom	Student-Centered Classrooms at the College Level This TLC Learning Community talked about something we all love: teaching. The focus of this community was understanding researched methods of creating a student centered environment. Led by Dr. Cheryl Irish, Assistant Dean and Director, School of Education.
Jan. & Feb. Multiple dates on Doodle	 Faculty Training Sessions were held in the Success Center Glenna Heckler-Todt and Success Center staff.	March 27 3pm UC 215	Title IX and Athletics SSU Coaches and the Athletic Director met in a face-to-face session to clarify recent requirements and procedures for those involved in athletics at SSU.
Jan. 30 Noon UC 214	Title IX : Five Things Every Department Chair Needs to Know This program focused on how faculty could support institutional Title IX compliance efforts and reporting obligations of faculty and staff and legal liability for non-compliance.	Mar. 27 4:00 pm UC 215	Responding to Students Experiencing Academic Distress As Dr. Linda Koenig reported to Faculty Senate, SSU students indicated in a recent Healthy Minds Study that they turn to faculty if a mental or emotional problem is impacting their academic achievement. How should faculty respond? Dr. Koenig guided faculty with ways to help students in crisis about academic issues.
Feb. 19-23 Mon—Fri Morris UC 215	Faculty Festival of Achievement Shawnee State faculty showcased scholarly research interests and projects via oral presentations. Faculty publications and creative projects were also on display online and in the Clark Memorial Library throughout the Festival week.	April 4-5	Celebration of Scholarship The TLC assisted with the student undergraduate conference by providing office support and handling various publicity and logistical support.
Feb. 27 4 pm Success Ctr. 150	Removing the Speedbumps Part II: Making classes accessible & ADA compliant Faculty enjoyed an engaging, hands-on session about creating compliant and accessible materials for in-person and online courses. This session focused on compliance in the classroom and making a class syllabi and handouts more accessible for everyone. Participants brought a sample handout and course syllabus to workshop materials throughout the session. Led by Sara Brown, Learning Specialist/eLearning Activities Coordinator, ACTC	April 20 Library	Title IX for the SSU Leadership Team Doug Shoemaker and SSU Counsel Michael McPhillips discussed Title IX decisions and processes at Shawnee State. Recent legislation was reviewed by Attorney McPhillips and participants considered recent court decisions and important ways to further our campus involvement in Title IX training.
Mar.1 Noon Success Ctr. 150	Blackboard & Gradebook Back by popular demand, Dr. Eugene Burns hosted a session for colleagues about how he utilizes gradebook in Blackboard for tests and quizzes. Dr. Burns demonstrated uploading and creating tests, answered questions and helped both new and returning attendees. Led by Dr. Eugene Burns	Blackboard Support and Training for Faculty SSU offers one-to-one help building or setting up your Blackboard class in the lower level of Clark Memorial Library’s Faculty and Staff IT Training Lab. E-mail Peggy (pwhyte@shawnee.edu) with questions or to set up an appointment. <hr/> Online training available via Academic Im-
Mar.14 4pm Morris UC 215	Promotion and Tenure Panel Successful promotion candidates Kurt Shoemaker and Jennifer Pauley, along with Dean Milliken, offered advice to faculty going up for promotion and tenure. The panel provided tips and took questions. A new digital submissions process was also discussed by the Provost office administrative assistant, Pam Otworth.	teachinglearning@shawnee.edu	